Supreme Court of the United States

OCTOBER TERM, 1934.

No. 270.

NORMAN C. NORMAN,

Petitioner,

against

THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY,

Respondent.

Motion to Advance.

IT IS STIPULATED AND AGREED by counsel for the respective parties hereto, that notice of motion for October 1st, 1934 to advance the above entitled cause is hereby waived.

Dated, New York, September 25, 1934.

EMANUEL REDFIELD,
Counsel for Petitioner.

FREDERICK H. WOOD,
Counsel for Respondent.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER TERM, 1934.

No. 270.

NORMAN C. NORMAN,

Petitioner,

against

THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY,

Respondent.

Comes now the petitioner in the above entitled cause, the respondent waiving notice, as evidenced by stipulation of counsel dated the 25th day of September, 1934, signed and filed herewith, and moves the Court to advance the above entitled cause for hearing to an early day, convenient to the Court, during the present term, and the reasons relied upon for the advancement are:

That this action involves a construction of the standard "gold clause" contained in obligations and also the constitutionality of Public Resolution No. 10 of the Seventy-Third Congress. The questions involved are of great public importance and involve the stability of multitudes of similar contracts and the currency policies of the United States that will be affected by a decision of this Court. It is of urgent public importance that these questions be immediately resolved by this Court in order that both creditors and debtors may be assured of their rights and obligations under the numerous similar contracts already in existence.

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays that the case be advanced upon the calendar and assigned for hearing at an early date.

September 25, 1934.

Respectfully submitted,

EMANUEL REDFIELD,
Counsel for Petitioner.
